Event	Matthew 27:46-50	46 And about the ninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice, saying, Eli, Eli, lama sabachthani? that is to say, My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me? 47 Some of them that stood there, when they heard that, said, This man calleth for Elias. 48 And straightway one of them ran, and took a sponge, and filled it with vinegar, and put it on a reed, and gave him to drink. 49 The rest said, Let be, let us see whether Elias will come to save him. 50 Jesus, when he had cried again with a loud voice, yielded up the ghost .
Event Event	Mark 15:37 Luke 23:46	37 And Jesus cried with a loud voice, and gave up the ghost. 46 And when Jesus had cried with a loud voice, he said, Father, into thy hands I commend my spirit: and having said thus, he gave up the ghost.
Event	John 19:28-30	28 After this, Jesus knowing that all things were now accomplished, that the scripture might be fulfilled, saith, I thirst. 29 Now there was set a vessel full of vinegar: and they filled a sponge with vinegar, and put it upon hyssop, and put it to his mouth. 30 When Jesus therefore had received the vinegar, he said, It is finished: and he bowed his head, and gave up the ghost.
THE TIME BETWEEN JESUS'S DEATH & HIS APPEARANCE TO MARY MAGDALENE IN THE GARDEN TOMB AREA
Christ preached to the spirits in prison (Spirit World)	1 Peter 3:18-22	18 For Christ also hath once suffered for sins, the just for the unjust, that he might bring us to God, being put to death in the flesh, but quickened by the Spirit: 19 By which also he went and preached unto the spirits in prison; 20 Which sometime were disobedient, when once the longsuffering of God waited in the days of Noah, while the ark was a preparing, wherein few, that is, eight souls
Christ preched to the spirits in prison (Spirit World)	1 Peter 4:6	6 For for this cause was the gospel preached also to them that are dead , that they might be judged according to men in the flesh, but live according to God in the spirit.
President Joseph F Smith's vision of the Savior's visit to the spirits of the dead between his death and his visit with Mary Magdalene in the Garden Tomb area	Doctrine & Covenants 138:11	11 As I pondered over these things which are written, the eyes of my understanding were opened, and the Spirit of the Lord rested upon me, and I saw the hosts of the dead, both small and great. 	Doctrine & Covenants 138:12	12 And there were gathered together in one place an innumerable company of the spirits of the just, who had been faithful in the testimony of Jesus while they lived in mortality;
	Doctrine & Covenants 138:13	13 And who had offered sacrifice in the similitude of the great sacrifice of the Son of God, and had suffered tribulation in their Redeemer's name.
	Doctrine & Covenants 138:14	14 All these had departed the mortal life , firm in the hope of a glorious resurrection, through the grace of God the Father and his Only Begotten Son, Jesus Christ.
	Doctrine & Covenants 138:15	15 I beheld that they were filled with joy and gladness, and were rejoicing together because the day of their deliverance was at hand.
	Doctrine & Covenants 138:16	16 They were assembled awaiting the advent of the Son of God into the spirit world , to declare their redemption from the bands of death.
	Doctrine & Covenants 138:17	17 Their sleeping dust was to be restored unto its perfect frame, bone to his bone, and the sinews and the flesh upon them, the spirit and the body to be united never again to be divided, that they might receive a fulness of joy.
	Doctrine & Covenants 138:18	18 While this vast multitude waited and conversed, rejoicing in the hour of their deliverance from the chains of death, the Son of God appeared , declaring liberty to the captives who had been faithful;
	Doctrine & Covenants 138:19	19 And there he preached to them the everlasting gospel, the doctrine of the resurrection and the redemption of mankind from the fall, and from individual sins on conditions of repentance.
	Doctrine & Covenants 138:20	20 But unto the wicked he did not go , and among the ungodly and the unrepentant who had defiled themselves while in the flesh, his voice was not raised;
	Doctrine & Covenants 138:21	21 Neither did the rebellious who rejected the testimonies and the warnings of the ancient prophets behold his presence, nor look upon his face.
	Doctrine & Covenants 138:22	22 Where these were, darkness reigned, but among the righteous there was peace;
	Doctrine & Covenants 138:29 Doctrine & Covenants 138:30	29 And as I wondered, my eyes were opened, and my understanding quickened, and I perceived that the Lord went not in person among the wicked and the disobedient who had rejected the truth, to teach them; 30 But behold, from among the righteous, he organized his forces and appointed messengers, clothed with power and authority,
	Doctrine & Covenants 138:31	and commissioned them to go forth and carry the light of the gospel to them that were in darkness, even to fall the spirits of men; and thus was the gospel preached to the dead. 31 And the chosen messengers went forth to declare the acceptable day of the Lord and proclaim liberty to the captives who were bound, even unto all who would repent of their sins and receive the gospel.
	Doctrine & Covenants 138:32	32 Thus was the gospel preached to those who had died in their sins, without a knowledge of the truth, or in transgression, having rejected the prophets.
	Doctrine & Covenants 138:35	35 And so it was made known among the dead, both small and great, the unrighteous as well as the faithful, that redemption had been wrought through the sacrifice of the Son of God upon the cross.

The Greek "Stop holding me" as hold me back no longerI am not yet ascended to my Father Christ had literally just finished his work in the Spirit World (multi-dimensional visit), and now was on his way back to the Father to be resurrected. The Spirit World envelops the earth within another spiritual dimension, and it must be discerned by "purer eyes" (Doc & Cov 131:7-8) Our non-perfected (un-resurrected) body, does not see in light spectrum outside of ultra-violet blue. Spirits are not encumbered by telestial matter, specifically the ability of our eyes to see finer/purer elements. Ordinance of Resurrection	Kimball in the April 1977 General Conference, Priesthood Session.	said: "It is supposed by this people that we have all the ordinances in our possession for life and salvation, and exaltation, and that we are administering in those ordinances. This is not the case. We are in possession of all the ordinances that can be administered in the flesh; but there are other ordinances and administrations that must be administered beyond this world. I know you would like to ask what they are. I will mention one. We have not, neither can we receive here, the ordinance and the keys of resurrection." President Nelson (3/2023) does not have possession of those keys, that I'm aware of. And, even though many of the saints have come forth out of the grave (resurrected) as cited in Matt 27:52, there is no reference as to their immediate pre-resurrection or resurected state. They

It is also part of the patriarchal order of the family. So far as the celestial kingdom is concerned, the resurrection is a family event. We would at first naturally suppose that Jesus would resurrect himself, but pehaps he did not. Jesus did not baptize himself. The clear rendering of Acts 2:22-24,32; 3:12-15; 5:30 (as cited above) represents Peter saying on three separate occasions that God raised up Jesus from the dead. If we read those passages literally and combine that concept with the teachings of President Brigham Young and Elder Snow, that only a resurrected being can perform a resurrection, we may gain an insight into the resurrection process as a patriarchal family order in which a righteous	resurected being. Those who live the higher laws of Jesus Christ have access to His higher power. Thus, covenant keepers are entitled to a special kind of rest that comes to them through their covenantal relationship with God." (Overcome the World and Find Rest, Russell M Nelson, General

There are many things which belong to the powers of the Priesthood and the keys thereof, that have been kept hid from before the foundation of the world; they are hid from the wise and prudent to be revealed in the last times. Many have supposed that the doctrine of translation was a doctrine whereby men were taken immediately into the presence of God, and into an eternal fullness, but this is a mistaken idea. Their place of habitation is that of the terrestrial order, and a place prepared for such characters He held in reserve to be ministering angels unto many planets, and who as yet have not entered into so great a fullness as those who are resurrected from the dead. "Others were tortured, not accepting deliverance, that they might obtain a better resurrection." (See Hebrews 11:35.) Now it was evident that there was a better resurrection, or else God would not have revealed it unto Paul. Wherein then, can it be said a better resurrection. This distinction is made between the doctrine of the actual resurrection and translation: translation obtains deliverance from the tortures and sufferings of the body, but their existence will prolong as to the labors and toils of the ministry, before they can enter into so great a rest and glory. On the other hand, those who were tortured, not accepting deliverance, received and immediate rest from their labors. "And I heard a voice from heaven, saying, Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord, for from henceforth they do rest from their labors and their works do follow them." (See Revelation 14:13.) They rest from their labors for a long time, and yet their work is held in reserve for them, that they are permitted to do the same work, after they receive a resurrection for their bodies. But we shall leave this subject and the subject of the terrestrial bodies for another time,	Father sent messengers to other earths (planets) to preach the Gospel of Jesus Christ to begotten Sons and Duaghters. Not disimilarly to heavenly messengers who restored truthes and priesthood keys to dispensational prophets here, on this earth. From the earliest of recorded history, translated beings (terrestrialized beings), like those inhabitants of the City of Holiness, Zion, the City of Enoch, were assigned as ministering angels to planets in God's creation. These messengers provided heavenly visitations to Begotten Sons and Daughters unto God, born on other habitable planets. As part of the Plan of Happiness (Salvation), priesthood assignments to minister throughout God's Creation provided dispensational keys to prophets living on other planets. Translated beings are not disembodied like those who die, reside in the Spirit World, and await their deliverance in a state of "covenantal rest." (Doc & Cov 138) "The reward for keeping covenants with God is heavenly power—power that strengthens us to withstand our trials, temptations, and heartaches better. This power eases our way. Those who live the higher laws of Jesus Christ have access to His higher power. Thus, covenant keepers are entitled to a special kind of rest that comes to them through their covenantal relationship with God." (Overcome the World and Find Rest, Russell M Nelson, General
